

A Stakeholder Update on the Paulsboro Plaza Redevelopment Project

The New Save-A-Lot Food Store at Paulsboro Plaza will open Wednesday, July 26 at 8am!

Come over to support the grand opening ceremony on Wednesday at 10:15am! This new retail grocery store is the first phase of the Plaza's redevelopment project.

The local Save-A-Lot Food Store franchise is owned by Mr. & Mrs. Bob and Lora Newton and Son, Robert Jr. The store is bringing more than 20 new jobs to Paulsboro. The store is bringing a modern, brand-name shopping experience within walking distance for most residents of Paulsboro.

The Newtons appreciate the enthusiastic support of Mayor Gary C. Stevenson and State General Assemblyman John J. Burzichelli, of the Citizens of Paulsboro and of various local and state authorities.

Here are the Key Details for the Save-A-Lot Food Store Opening.

-Ribbon Cutting: There will be a Ribbon Cutting Ceremony scheduled for 10:15am on Wednesday.

-Come Over and Shop: You are invited to come over, shop for some groceries and tour the store

-Bring Your Friends and Neighbors: All are invited to come over to the store. Bring your Coupons!

-Grocery Giveaway: The store will give away many free bags of groceries. Details upon arrival!

The Plaza's Other Retail Storefronts will next include space for The Mailbox Store. And preliminary discussions for a new Dollar Tree Store are underway. There will also be a business services and support facility called The Paulsboro Business Center. Local businesses can access the services, facilities and advanced business technologies at the business center. Nino Gervasi's Ristorante Italiano and the Golden Garden Chinese Restaurant remain with Save-A-Lot and are open for business as always at 545 W. Broad Street in Paulsboro NJ.
